"LOST" PAPER IN MRS. MIZNER'S SUIT IS FOUND

It Had Been Tucked Away in a Package Marked "W."

SHE WANTS A DIVORCE.

Widow of Millionaire Yerkes Seeks Freedom from Young Husband.

son Minner, and which disappeared There y from its proper pigeon-hole yesterday would be in this paper yesterday.

he last bundle of papers, as alphabeti- The two boys were Charley Nicholcally arranged, was opened that the son and George McMahon. The last parchers came upon the paper. It lime I had seen him George was a pittable creature, shuffling or consider erly a professional boxer. After the paper had been found a big placard was pasted. It read: NOTICE-Papers will be delivered isitions bearing the full name and address of the appli-P. J. DOWLING nty Clerk, instead of making his inestigation-brought about by the expothe mysterious disappearance of the the newspaper men who had about the expose. But as a reference temorarily 'lost' aware probably, that there records of every court pro-

TEACHERS COME TO

But large administrative problems face Charley's letter to Santa Claus. you. The profession of teaching is a story of this little chap, whose cheerfulmatter of national importance. Sal- ness and endeared him to every one in WOMAN'S BODY IN aries are increasing and pensions are the Kings County Hospital, and who, it so longers able to teach. Teaching is being put upon a newer and higher plane.

"Not long ago the pastor of one of the greatest congregations in New York wrote me that his church was about to start a kindergarten. He wanted by the gualities of an entral. The actual could only, and would only, pay for a year or a tipe product of the season of the linear and the police of the season of the would be a measion at De Witt Clinton High School, It will be opened by an organ by Chancelor McCracken, of New York Chaires will be a season of the season o

Evening World Good Fairies Waved Their Wands And Enabled These Legless Little Boys to Walk AGREEMENT WITH IN BIG CROWD OF

Charley Nicholson and Georgie McMahon Meet and Try New Limbs.

ONE CAN PLAY BALL

The Other Is Waiting to Walk In and Thank-H Benefactor.

BY ALICE ROHE.

Two little boys walked across the green lawn of the Kings County Hosconfidences that made even the The order by which Justice Bischoff nurses smile, while at the same time pointed a referee to take testimony Mrs. Mary Adelaide Yerkes-Mizner's there was a suspicious moisture in to-day as was predicted the appearance of these two little anch of the county clerk's office ich is in charge of Thomas Blessing bit differently from the other chil-

Mr. Blessing to-day again superintory the sight of these little fellows movded the search, and Deputy County ing about like other children told a Curry emphatically said: story of kindness which proves that the reat in his tone, but it was not until been entirely commercialized after all.

Who bundled those papers?" de- -words cannot describe this little fei-'I bundled that 'W' package," replied floor of the hospital. Charley Nich-Peter Trolan, who has been in the of- olson I had taken to New York from Hoboken for The Evening World last December, a poor, wistful little fellow, a future where he could again run

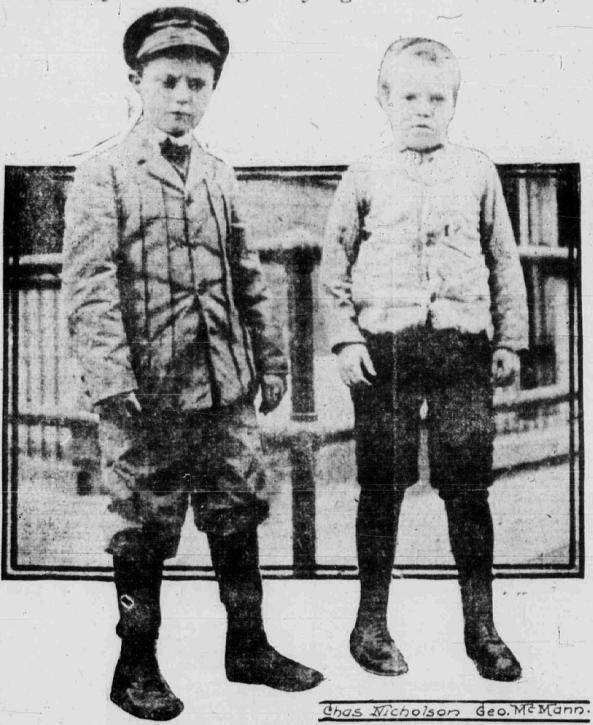

Both George and Charley were little unfortunates whose legs had been cut off. They were little cripples, the children of poor parents, with a life of help-It looked on the surface as if the until The Evening World's good fairies appeared. have found that their dreams have come true, and that this big, busy at of his subordinate responsible for ugly fifteen-story skyscrapers and work stead of living in beautiful fairy pal-

World visited the boy, who was no other than Charley Nicholson, and guest. You see, now, maybe some day I can found the little fellow's chair filled with newspaper cuts of artificial limbs, and There was a pathetic touch in little George's wisifulness which even Chare pamphiets of artificial limb houses George's coming to the fore for those who are so longer able to teach. Teaching is walk again, because he had lost both being put upon a newer and higher plane.

"Not long ago the paster of one of the streets a half hour the streets a street the streets a street the streets as the streets as the street the stre their bidding whenever they have a wand.

Charley and George Trying Their New Legs.

Readers of this newspaper know the stories of The Evening World's little cripples, who were supplied with artificial limbs through the kindness of two big-hearted men.

How Their Good Fairies Were Found.

I can walk than anybody in the world but I don't even know who he is."

I know who gave me my legs." announced George proudly. "Mr. Baire gave them to me because they had my ploture in The Evening World, and some day I'm going to walk into his coffice and thank him. Won't he be surprised to see how nice I can walk?"

The two boys walked about the grounds and posed for their pictures while the nurses and the other children regarded them with interest.

Found.

One day when the Santa Claus letters were being read, the editor found a pathetic note from a little boy in Hoboken who asked St. Nicholas to please bring him a pair of new legs for Christmas. The little boy had been run over by a car in the ratiroad yards, and now he set all day looking out at his school-lite. I walk to school all by myself now. My brother and sister had to wheel me before. Why, say, I feel just as good as new. I can go errands of or mamma, and I can push the baby about in her buggy, and I ain't a care little. I weed to be set all "

Little George's Ambition.

CITY BY HUNDREDS

the pamphlets of artificial limb houses were his picture books.

When the story of Charley Nicholson was published in The Evening World in the answer from Santa Claus came with a promptness that made everybody of the International Kindergarten Union.

Fair Delegates Attend Sessions of the International Kindergarten Union.

The pamphlets of artificial limb houses were his picture books.

When the story of Charley Nicholson was published in The Evening World in the story of Charley, who shares the meagre earnings of a hard-working father with is brothers and sisters and his tired, pathenn the pashwas published in The Evening World its poor indeed. Little George can never look forward to a promptness that made everybody graph in the son of poor parents, equilibrium to the pashwas published in The Evening World in the story of Charley, who shares the meagre earnings of a hard-working father with is brothers and sisters and his tired, pathenn the story of the grow home and earn my living. The work in the grow home and earn my living and the value of the working father with is belonged to them. The keg which they said belonged to them. The keg which they said belonged to them. The keg which they said belonged to them. The keg with the pashwas full of pickles, and Mrs. Britzer refused the burial living."

He walked off like a man and kept in the surface of my living in the son of poor parents, equilibrium. The keg with the set of my living. The walked off like a man and kept in the gray half-light, the pashwas published in the gray half-light, the pashwas published to find a burial was belonged to them. The keg which they said belonged to them. The keg with the set of my living."

He walked off like a man and kept in the walked off like a man and kept in the world and threatened to my living. The world in the pashwas published to find a bring of the world in the pash was published to the pash was published to the burial was published to the walked off like a man and kept in the walked off like a man

Gergalten Union.

It is seldom that realization is equal to anticipation, but in Charley's case it was more than equal, for the little boy, who was brought from Hoboken to visit Charley to-day, and who could walk aimost as good as anyone, was the happiest little chap in all New Jersfrest easien of the convention was held yesterday at the Horace Mann Assembly Hall. James E. Russell, dean of the Teachers' College, delivered an address of welcome, in which he said:

The kindergarten, we are happy to say, is no longer on the defensive. It has won out. The years of struggle for position and place are in the past.

But large administrative problems face you. The profession of teaching is a tory of this little chap, whose cheerful-some somuch. It is seldom that realization is equal to anticipation, but in Charley's case it was much in Charley's case it was much. The gradely form Hoboken to visit Charley to-day, and who could walk aimost as good as anyone, was the happiest little chap in all New Jersfrom Santa Claus in the guise of one of the two boys had finished regarding each other and had become garding each other and had become garding each other and had become of New York's most prominent architects, who wished his name withheld. George's new legs were a gift of St. Valentine.

The response to The Evening World's printing of little George McMahon's story was even more prompt than to Charley's letter to Santa Claus. The profession of teaching is a tory of this little chap, whose cheerful-

STATEN ISLAND SOUND.

SMALL BENNIE LOST, CHASED TWO WOMEN BURIAL AT SEA FIRST LIFE BATTLE

in Lee Avenue Court

for Assault.

His Own Living, but Weariness Overcame Him.

Benjamin Moleska, aged thirteen of Pompton Lake, N. J. got a calendar and Edward Reynolds, of No. 15 Lee from his best girl yesterday, and while avenue, Williamsburg, were held in the he and his little brother Billy were admiring it his big brother Joe came along and appropriated it. Benjamin and Joe had a first fight, and their mother scold-was delighted when people handed pennies to him.

and the price of a big apple. He crossed the Liberty street ferry and started north, shaken with weariness in his legs and with doubt in his resolutions. When Benjamin got to One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Eighth avenue he couldn't choke back the teers any longer, so he cried hard. He was much ashamed of himself, but Detective McCann was so good as to overlook his tears and ask him about himself They walked over to the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Police Station, where Lieut. Kauff was eating his supper. He asked Benjamin t share it, which the boy did with alac

With a full stomach and dry eyes. Benjamin told about his essay to make his living, and was rejoiced to learn ents to come and get him.

Objects to Cecil Rhodes Scholarship for a Negro.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 2 .- Gustaf R. Westfeldt, a prominent business man of New Orleans and a member of the Board of Administration of Tulane Un versity, has written a letter to the Brit ish Ambassador at Washington advisna against the appointment of negroes Cecil Rhodes scholarships at Oxford University. Mr. Westfeldt's letter i propos of the recent appointment of Pennsylvania negro to one of these scholarships. He believes that the ap-pointment of negroes, will make the Rhodes scholarships unpopular in the

Can think clearly when you eat

The delicious Brain Food. "There's a Reason'

WITH A BIG KNIFE FOR CHICAGO WOMAN

Bravely Started Out to Earn Williamsburg Young Men Held Mrs. Pentrico's Funeral from Koenigen Luise Was

various piers of the companies which see that no unlicensed men are sen

ceded to Demand for

Increase of Pay.

contention that whatever increase of pay they may grant shall be based on length of service of officers and class of ship. The Morgan Line agreed to the demands of the men entirely on their first-class ships, which, unde Jovernment regulation, must carr

three officers, and with a leaser price

Capt. Dow expressed himself please

The crisis will come this afterno when the Sabine, of the Mallory Line, and the Arapaho, of the Clyde Line, sail. These companies, in agreement with the Metropolitan, Eastern Steam with the actoperation Citizens and Ward Lines, are holding out for the sliding scale, and awaiting the decision of the matter, the Atlantic Coast

Company, the Guffey Oil Company, the Standard Oil Company, the Southern Pacific and the Savannah

the Guffey

Dramatic Scene.

Koyal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

> Has Many Imitators But no Equal

will be allowed on presentation write for thur of this advertisement on any New Catalogue. Turnished $65 lete purchased for each this week. Mailed Free. Agents for GRAND RAPIDS FURNITURE. Evening Until PLESTURE, CARPETS, DEDDING, &c. Which Can Be Purchased on Our Liberal Credit System $75 Worth, $7.59 Down, $1.50 Week $100 " $10.90 " $2.99 " $150 " $15.00 " $2.25 " 8200 " $10.00 " $2.50 " $200 " $10.00 " $2.50 " $300 " $30.00 " $3.53 "

Accounts up to $10,000 b) special

OFFICERS EXPECT CUT HIS THROAT SHIP OWNERS WOMEN SHOPPERS

Six Companies Have Ac- Witnesses of Desperate Attempt at Suicide Nurse Victim.

Their demands to Third avenue and One Hundred and

It were easier far to catch the secret of the flowers' sweetness than to define the charm of NABISCO

SUGAR WAFERS

When you think you have it, that moment it eludes you. Only those who are wisely content to feast upon these delightful confections are competent to appreciate them.

In ten cent tins,

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Do you know of a better train service, Of a finer or more completely equipped

ST. LOUIS

than the

Leave Grand Central Station 2.00 P. M. Arrive St. Louis 5.00 P. M. next day.

FIVE OTHER FAST DAILY TRAINS

For information see any of our ticket agents or apply to L. F. Vosburgh, General Eastern Passenger Agent, 1216 Broadway, corner 30th Street.

Telephone, 5680 Madison Square.

"America's Summer Respris" mailed on receipt of a 'America's Greatest two-cent stamp. Address Gineral Adverts Rallway System." partment, Grand Central Station, New York.

